

PRIVACY NOTICE

Woodroyd Nursery and Children's Centre collect personal data about you and your child for the purpose of delivering childcare services. We will only do so with your explicit consent and in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations 2018.

All information about parents and children is treated as confidential and will not be used for any purpose other than that for which it was given unless permission has been obtained from the giver. The only exception to this is in circumstances where not to do so would place a child at risk of significant harm.

Woodroyd Nursery and Children's Centre will aim at all times to develop an open and honest relationship with the children and families that it supports.

Information collected

The personal information we collect will be limited to that which is essential to allow us to provide the support you require, including:

- Names, genders, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses
- Employment, immigration statuses, disabilities (such as physical or learning disabilities) and ethnic origins
- Data concerning health and details of other support services being used by the family (EHCP, Speech and Language, CAMHS, Children's Social Care)
- Information as to whether a child is subject to assessment needs (such as Early Help Plan) or a Child Protection Plan, or is a Child in Need

How we use your personal information and who it will be shared with

Internal

Our staff discuss your child's support and learning needs with their managers, to ensure the best quality of care is provided to your child. Discussions take place within nursery in a confidential setting.

All information provided to our board of trustees for the purpose of assessing the level of referrals, local trends or case studies shall be anonymised.

External

We will, on an anonymised basis, use your personal information to demonstrate the impact of our services and for statistical analysis to funders and the Local Authority. Any case study information shared will always be on an anonymised basis unless we have further explicit consent from you.

We are required to share your personal information with the Local Authority for the Early Education Entitlement. The Local Authority require information about children attending early years settings for their Early Years Entitlements to enable funding to be paid. Parents and carers who access funded places are required to complete a Funding Agreement which will be securely destroyed 4 years from your child's start date.

The Local Authority holds this personal data and uses it to:

- confirm eligibility of children access to funded entitlements, Disability Access Fund and Early Years Pupil Premium
- calculate the amount of funding to be paid to the provider
- carry out financial audits of early years providers.
- carry out its statutory functions to ensure sufficient provision funded entitlements is available. The statistics are used in such a way that individual children cannot be identified.

We may share your personal information with our external auditors for quality auditing purposes but only in the presence of your key worker. We will share personal information with law enforcement or other authorities if required by applicable law (including, in line with our Safeguarding and Promoting the Welfare of Children/Safeguarding Adults at risks policies, where there are concerns about the safety or wellbeing of a child or adult at risk and it is considered necessary for their welfare and protection). We may seek advice from Health Visitors, or any other agencies involved with a family if we have any concerns about the welfare of a child. The Safeguarding Lead on the Board of Trustees may require access to your file in case of any safeguarding concerns. We will not share your personal information with any other third party without first obtaining your explicit consent. With permission we may share your personal information with Early Help to enable you and your family access to additional services where your support needs can be addressed by a multiagency.

How long your personal information will be kept

We will keep your personal information after our support ends to respond to any questions, complaints or claims made by you or on your behalf, to show that we treated you fairly and/or to keep records required by law. We will not keep the information for longer than necessary. Normally this will be kept for 12 months after support has ended before it is securely destroyed, except where there have been children's safeguarding concerns in which case files will be kept for 6 years.

Keeping your personal information secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent your information from being accidentally lost or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality. We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach.

Your Rights

You have important rights to your personal information, including the rights to:

- access your personal information and view your family file
- require us to correct any mistakes in your information
- require the erasure of personal information concerning you in certain situations;

For further information on these rights, visit ICO website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>

If you would like to exercise any of the rights, please email, call or write to us using the details below and request our "Access Request" form.
